DIFFERENCES OVER

TAX EXCESS COTTONHIGH GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL
AND TEXAS REPRESENTATIVE
IN CONTROVERSY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13. (P)—Differences developed today between a high government official and Chairman Jones (D-Tex) of the house agriculture committee as to whether cotton taxes levied but uncollected prior to the Bankhead control act's repeal must be paid.

The government spokesman, who declined to be quoted by name, told reporters an effort would be made to collect taxes due under the Bankhead act, the Kerr-Smith tobacco act and the potato control law at the time they were repealed. He acknowledged, however, that there "might be some controversy" with taxpayers challenging constitutionality of the levies.

Previously Jones had expressed hope that the treasury would rule that Bankhead relief repealed cotton of the uncollected taxes. He said in response to questions that congress might have to pass a resolution clarifying the situation but that he hoped "it will not be necessary."

"Manifestly, it is the intent of congress that this cotton should be relieved from taxes as well as lens," Jones added. "I hope the treasury will construe it that way."

The administration official said taxpayers would have a right to sue for the refund of any tax which they deem unconstitutional.

Constitutionality of the three repealed taxes was passed.

Twenty-Eight Dead
And 71 Injured in Fires, Explosion

By The Associated Press.

At least twenty-eight deaths and 71 injured, many of them seriously, were listed today as the result of four fires and an explosion.

A fire that turned a merry-making throng in a New York restaurant into a tear-drenched mob left five dead and 41 injured before it was brought under control today.

At Lakewood, N. J., the official count of deaths resulting from the burning of the Victoria mansion Hotel was increased today to 15. At least 20 other persons were injured in the blaze yesterday.

Four members of the Paul Poirart family died in flames that consumed their farm home at Jackson, Minn.

Three workmen were killed and six others injured in an explosion that wrecked a portion of a tunnel being dug for a new sewer, in Chicago last night.

Three nuns were burned as fire swept a convent at Montreal.

A blast, believed caused by leaking gas, wrecked a grocery and another building at Mattoon, Ill., killing Miss Cathryn LaFever, 22, and firemen feared several others had perished. Two were known to have been injured.

Plans of League

GENEVA, Feb. 13. (P)—Advices from Washington that congressional legislation to authorize an oil embargo seemed improbable strengthened today a general belief that application of a League of Nations oil sanction against Italy appeared unlikely.

The league committee of experts, in its report on the possibilities of enforcement of an oil sanction, had ruled that unless the United States participated, the proposed extension of penalties upon Italy for its war in Ethiopia would fail.

Some league officials pointed out that if the league applied an oil sanction, which was deemed hopeless in advance, this action might bring an attack upon existing financial and economic sanctions by sanctionist nations which are now suffering losses through their operation of the war penalties.

PATROLMAN MUST

AUSTIN, Feb. 13. (P)—Governor Allred today commuted to life imprisonment the death sentence of Ramiro Galvan alias Raul Galvan, assessed for the murder of a border patrolman in El Paso county.

Galvan was scheduled to be electrocuted tomorrow. He was convicted in the death of Ivan Scott, patrolman shot to death in a gun battle July 20, 1929, at Los Pompos crossing on the Rio Grande with alleged liquor smugglers.

Governor Allred said he believed Galvan was guilty but the evidence "is not entirely satisfactory in certain respects, and frankly the most damaging evidence, in my judgment, is circumstantial."

He said he was not impressed with last-minute pleas of newly

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13. (P)—President Roosevelt was informed today that 1,068,000 veterans have filed applications for cash payment of the bonus up to February 15th.

His forces were girding for action in Oregon, Wisconsin and Nebraska. They previously had made definite plans to enter Ohio.

Although acknowledging he aspired to the nomination, Senator Dickinson (R-Ia) at Greensboro, N. C., told reporters he would not seek pledged delegates in the state primaries. Delegate contests often beget enemies, he reminded, and

COALITION CABINET

PUBLICANS REFUSE TO DIS-CUSS MATTER, HOWEVER

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13. (P)—Henry P. Fletcher, republican national chairman, said today he had "heard talk" about a coalition cabinet if the new deal is defeated in November. He declined to discuss the subject.

While political oratory in honor of Abraham Lincoln subsided, Fletcher met with reporters in press conference. Questions about cabinet plans were induced by a welcome extended last night by Senator Vandenberg of Michigan in New York to co-operation from "Jeffersonian Democrats"—not alone in the campaign, he said, but in the council chamber after next November's victory is won.

In the democratic fold, plans to enter Roosevelt delegates in important primaries appeared to be expanding. Pennsylvania, Illinois, Wisconsin and New Jersey were named among the states where these tactics will be pursued.

The aim apparently would be two-fold. Rolling up of goodly numbers behind administration delegates might be counted on to have some psychological effect and, at the same time, preclude possible difficulties if the question of new deal support were left out of pre-convention considerations.

Plan Seat Roosevelt Delegates. Charles West, undersecretary of the interior, had already told Ohio democrats "we intend to seat that Roosevelt delegates" are seated if credentials contests develop at Philadelphia.

Fletcher told reporters "Jim Farley and those fellows will have

DICTMENT ADMINISTRATION

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 13. (P)—A "confusion of dictatorship with democracy" was Herbert Hoover's indictment today against the new deal administration of his successor in the White House.

The former president, become vigorous campaigner against the administration of his successor, told Lincoln Day banquets "fountain of fear" has sprung from the current "confusion in government."

Before the applause of 1,000 listeners died out he announced he would travel to Colorado March 7 to speak at that state's young Republicans at Colorado Springs.

Mr. Hoover styled last night's address a speech on "the confused state of the union," and under the title attacked President Roosevelt's recent message to congress.

"The President stated a month ago that the issue before us is the 'right of the average man and woman to lead a finer, better and happier life,'" he declared.

"That is an objective to which we all agree. That is the ideal of Americans since it was first proclaimed in the declaration of independence. That is not the issue."

"The issue is the new deal methods and objectives which are destroying this very thing. Again referring to the message

Milk Honor Roll

AUSTIN, Feb. 13. (P)—Twenty-two Texas cities today had places on the United States public health service honor roll for good ratings in milk sanitation.

The cities included Abilene, Amarillo, Austin, Big Spring, Brenham, Corsicana, Dallas, El Paso, Fort Worth, Gainesville, Houston, Laredo, Lubbock, San Antonio, Sherman, Texarkana, Tyler and Waco.

Ratings of 90 per cent or more for both raw and pasteurized milk were awarded the cities after a survey conducted by the Texas health department.

The percentage of compliance with requirements of the public health service milk ordinance for grade A milk by individual dairymen and pasteurization plants formed the basis of the ratings.

STRICKEN BY FLAMES

NEW YORK, Feb. 13. (P)—Investigators declared today that panic rather than flames caused the deaths of five persons and injuries to 41 in a fire which swept through Lum's Chinese restaurant at the height of a party.

Fire Commissioner John J. McGott said a preliminary inquiry showed no suspicious circumstances connected with the fire nor any evidence of negligence.

"It is just another case of panic where people invariably will try to get out the same door in which they entered," said Building Commissioner Samuel Fassler.

Most of the patrons, he said, had tried to leave through a 5th street exit. There was another stairway on Lexington avenue.

Three men and two women died in the flames, which swept into the second floor restaurant at 735 Lexington avenue from a ground floor haberdashery last night.

Burning through the floor, the flames quickly swept over the hanging drapes and flashy decorations of the (Lum's) restaurant.

By GLENN BABB
(Copyright, 1936, By Associated Press.)

TOKYO, Feb. 13. (P)—The Manchoukuoan government took a grave view of the latest border clash with soviet forces near Mongolia, a Domei (Japanese) news agency dispatch said today, especially since the enemy allegedly used bombing planes.

The dispatch from Hankow, capital of the Japanese-ruled state of Manchoukuo, quoting a spokesman for the Manchoukuoan foreign office, said the encounter yesterday at Olahodka was the most serious thus far of the last year's border incidents.

Military reports from the border confirmed reports that planes attempted to bomb the Japanese-Manchoukuoan column involved, but failed to inflict casualties, the dispatch said.

Accounts differed as to whether two or three planes took part in the engagement and as to whether they were Russian or outer-Mongolian.

War Minister Yoshitoki claimed Japanese concern over a vast alleged concentration of soviet military power in Far Eastern Siberia, close to the frontiers of Manchoukuo.

General Kawashima disavowed any intention by the Japanese army

DOOMED AS TURNED INTO "GAME"

TULSA, Okla., Feb. 13. (P)—Fastidious Tulsa diners have developed a taste for roast crow—and it might mean the end for a black robber of the corn rows.

Because—believes Dr. T. W. Stallings, a crow-hater—as a table delicacy the field pest will rise to the dignity of a game bird. As a high priced poultry he will become extinct.

And Tulsa suddenly is enthusiastic over crow meat. Hospitals and schools are experimenting in crow cookery, housewives have proclaimed the bird a choice morsel on his head.

Butchers have small boys out scouring the fields for crows at $1.50 a dozen.

The whole idea belongs to Dr. Stallings, former county health superintendent.

The chief characteristic of the under-cover movement on a nationwide front was a widespread screen of secrecy, illuminated fitfully here and there by brief flashes of information.

Little possibility of inaugurating a street repairing program in Corsicana within the immediate future was reported by Mayor J. S. Murchison Thursday morning after he had returned from a conference with district WPA officials at Palestine on Wednesday afternoon.

He reported that district officials told him that sufficient labor was not available in Corsicana for the work at this time, with less than a hundred men from the relief rolls unassigned on projects.

A work order on the construction of the low-water dams near Lake Halbert was promised within ten days by Palestine officials according to the mayor, and construction is expected to start as soon as team and truck contracts for the project have been awarded and completed. The project calls for approximately 100 men, and some now engaged on the dam repair unit may have to be transferred.

Connally took the floor shortly after Attorney General Cummings said the justice department had studied the constitutional powers of congress over the tariff—an issue raised by some after AAA's invalidation—but insisted the survey was "a mere matter of routine."

COUNTERPART GANGSTER TODAY
THRIVED IN MINNEHAHA'S DAY;
BEAUTIFUL INDIAN PUT ON SPOT

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13. (P)—Delving into Indian legend, the Smithsonian Institution bobbed up today with evidence that Minnehaha, bride of Hiawatha, was put on the spot by a "super-gangster."

Seeking to separate fact from myth in the famous story, Dr. J. N. B. Hewitt, Smithsonian ethnologist, made public this version:

Hiawatha, a man of "decidedly liberal leanings" and social viewpoint, had a step-brother who was just the opposite. This step-brother, an Onondaga Indian named Wa-ta-do-da-ho, was a "ruthless gangster" and with a "band of ruffians" he terrorized his tribe. Anybody who opposed him was "put on the spot."

Disgusted with this gang rule, Hiawatha tried to organize a rival party "but could obtain no followers for obvious reasons."

Now, Wa-ta-do-da-ho would have liked to kill Hiawatha, but he did not dare, because Hiawatha's mother was a Mohawk Indian and that powerful tribe would have risen to do vengeance on the slayer.

So Wa-ta-do-da-ho "comprom-

BITTER COLD, FIRES

SHORTAGE OVER NORTH

By The Associated Press.

Storms and a series of fires brought a heavy loss of life and considerable property damage to the northern half of the world today.

As nature sent wind, cold and snow across North America, Europe, Asia and into Africa, tornadoes whipped the western coast of the United States and 27 persons were burned to death in fires at Lakewood, N. J.; Jackson, Minn.; New York and Montreal.

Five persons were burned to death in a restaurant fire at New York, 15 at the Victoria mansion conflagration at Lakewood, 3 in a convent fire at Montreal and four in a blaze at a farm house in Jackson.

Icy gales killed 133 persons in Europe and Asia Minor in three days.

New snowdrifts piled up as the weather moderated from the Rockies to the Atlantic. Transportation, already disrupted in some sections, was further hampered.

The United States suffered less from severe weather than the west of the northern hemisphere. Snow and rain covered 80 per cent of the country, washing out all but a trace of the cold of the last month. Temperatures went above normal over most of the country from the Rockies to the Eastern Coast.

More cold from the way from Canada, however, the weather bureau at Chicago said, and at 7 a. m. today the mercury stood at 32 below zero at Havre, Mont., and 30 below at Devils Lake, N. D. Eleven towns, remained isolated in South Dakota, and airplane

Latest Scheduled
Texas Cold Wave
Without Teeth

By The Associated Press.

Cold winds from the snow-bound midwest brought sub-freezing weather to North Texas last night but, unlike the bitter "norther" common this winter, failed to penetrate deep into the state.

No snow was reported in Texas. To the north Oklahoma City had a temperature of 12 above zero and it was snowing there.

The lowest temperature in Texas was 4 above at Perryton. Amarillo's mercury dropped to 20 and, after sunrise, rose slightly to 24. It was down to 28 at Abilene and 27 at Dallas last night. At Wichita Falls the low was 19.

Minimums ranging from 46 at Del Rio, 58 at Houston and 55 at Brownsville indicated the "norther" had little effect on the southern part of the state.

The East Texas forecast was far partly cloudy conditions tonight and Friday. The weatherman said it would be slightly warmer in the northwest and north central portions of East Texas tonight.

West Texas was in line for partly cloudy weather tonight and Friday and colder in the Panhandle Friday.

Secretary Navy
Swanson Believed

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13. (P)—Secretary Swanson, who suffered a fractured rib in a fall at his home a week ago, has developed pleurisy and a brother has been summoned to his bedside at Naval Hospital.

Hospital officials said Mrs. Swanson, summoned by H. C. Swanson, brother of the 74-year-old secretary of the navy, from his home at Danville, Va.

Swanson's condition was described as "serious but not immediately alarming."

Pleurisy developed yesterday in his left lung, on the same side that the rib was fractured. Attendants said this was not an unusual development in such cases except that it was delayed so long after the injury.

Swanson's age was a factor that caused some worry.

SAMUEL P. COCHRAN, MASON OF NATIONAL PROMINENCE, DIES

EIGHTY-YEAR-OLD MASONIC LEADER DIED LATE TUES-DAY AFTER LONG ILLNESS

DALLAS, Feb. 12.—(AP)—Members of the Masonic Order of the nation today mourned the death of Samuel P. Cochran, distinguished elder statesman of American Free Masonry and for more than 25 years a prominent figure in public life.

The 80-year-old Masonic leader died late yesterday after a long illness. Funeral services were arranged for 2:30 p. m. today with the Lone Star chapter, Knights Rose Croix, conducting the rites. A leader in civic affairs, Mr. Cochran, so far as known, was the only Dallas man to whom a statue was erected in tribute to him during his life. The statue, of Roman bronze, costing $25,000, is located on the lawn of the Scottish Rite cathedral.

The veteran Mason was a native of Lexington, Ky., and his affiliation with Masonry began in 1880, when he became a member of the Golden Rule Lodge No. 345, in Covington. He later affiliated himself with the Lone Star chapter, No. 780, in 1911 until a short time ago, Mr. Cochran served as Sovereign Grand Inspector General for Texas and as member of the Supreme Council of the Southern Jurisdiction.

Three years ago Mr. Cochran began studying law and was admitted to the bar at a special session of the Texas supreme court, Chief Justice C. M. Cureton called for that purpose.

He married Miss Regina Urbish in 1904. She was his second wife. His first wife, the former Miss Sue Webb Higgins of Lexington, Ky., died in 1928.

Survivors include his widow, a brother, F. D. Cochran of Dallas, and a sister, Mrs. Townsend Cushman of Washington.

Samuel Poyntz Cochran was a distinguished elder statesman of American Free Masonry and for more than a quarter of a century one of the most respected figures in the public life of Texas and the nation.

Although he was one of the best known Texans of his generation and was keenly interested and frequently active in public affairs, he never sought public office.

Cochran served as a regent of the University of Texas and as a member of the Dallas park board. His name appeared on a ballot but once. In the summer of 1933 he was a dry delegate to the convention to consider repeal of the eighteenth amendment.

Characteristic of his eagerness to broaden his usefulness, he interested himself in the study of law in his seventy-seventh year. On July 14, 1932, Chief Justice C.

M. Cureton convened the supreme court of Texas in a special session for the sole purpose of honoring Cochran by admitting him to the Texas bar and administering the oath.

Mr. Cochran was one of few private citizens to see his effigy in bronze during his active years. Honoring his long and unusually varied service to the Masonic craft, fellow Masons raised a monument to him at a cost of $25,000 on the lawn of the Scottish Rite cathedral in Dallas. The tribute was planned and executed without Mr. Cochran's knowledge other than being invited to the unveiling in 1920.

Born in Kentucky.
Born in Lexington, Ky., Sept. 11, 1855, he was the son of Col. John Carr Cochran, a Kentuckian who served with the Union forces in the Fourteenth Volunteer Kentucky Infantry during the Civil war, and Samuella Tannehill De-wees. Mr. Cochran carried on the military traditions of the family by serving three years in the Kentucky militia.

He attended grammar school at Cincinnati, Ohio, and high school at Covington, Ky., graduating in 1874. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Psi chapter at Lexington, Ky., and took his law degree in Dallas and again as a student in the law school.

Upon leaving school in 1873, he began his insurance career as one of the supervising corps employed by the national board of fire underwriters to rate the city of Cincinnati on the schedule plan. In the latter part of 1874, he entered the general agency office of J. W. Cochran & Son at Lexington, Ky., and subsequently engaged in local agency work at Covington.

He served as deputy United States marshal for the Eastern district of Kentucky for three years, 1878, 79 and 80.

Came to Dallas in 1881.
In 1881, Mr. Cochran came to Dallas as special agent for an Eastern fire insurance company.

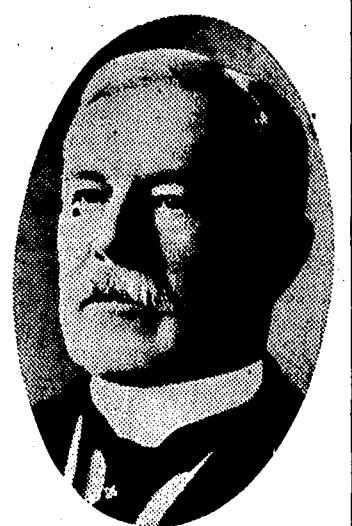

On July 1, 1883, he became connected with Dargan & Trezevant, Southwestern department managers for a large number of standard companies, and on January 1 of the following year became a full partner in the firm. On July 1, 1885, Mr. Dargan retired, and the firm name became Trezevant & Cochran. He became its head upon the retirement of his partner several years ago.

Mr. Cochran returned to Kentucky for his bride in 1883, marrying Miss Sue Webb Higgins of Lexington. Both were members of the Christian Science church in Dallas, of which he was one of the charter members and a member of the board of trustees.

No member of the Masonic fraternity in America, perhaps, was better known among the craft than filled more presiding offices than Mr. Cochran in his long membership. The symbolic mysticism of Free Masonry early took a firm hold on his imagination and to the last held him in its enfolding fraternalism.

Filled All Chairs.
He had filled the chairs of the high presiding officer of each of the five Masonic grand bodies of Texas, was until recently, an active member of the supreme council, 33rd and last degree of the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite for the Southern jurisdiction of the United States, and had represented that body to smaller governing Masonic bodies in foreign countries.

Cochran's affiliation with Masonry began in 1880 when he became a member of Golden Rule Lodge No. 345 in Covington. He later affiliated with Dallas Lodge No. 780. He became worshipful master of the Dallas Lodge in 1902, and in 1911 was elected grand master of Texas Masons, serving the usual one-year term.

In 1903 he organized the Dallas Scottish Rite Cathedral Association and had served as its president continuously. In 1912 he was elected grand master of the grand council of Royal and Select Master of Texas. In 1901 he became eminent commander of Dallas commandery No. 6, and in 1910 he was elected grand commander of Knights Templar of Texas.

In his report as grand high priest to the grand chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Texas in 1906, Cochran proposed a home for aged Masons. He was made chairman of the committee to take charge of this project and the home was built. He served as chairman of the board and as president from 1906 to 1916.

Other Honors.
In 1912 Cochran became grand patron of the grand chapter of the Order of Eastern Star in Texas. He served also as grand sovereign of the grand imperial council of the Red Cross of Constantinople. From 1921 to 1931 he was an active member of the grand council of the Order of De Molay.

In 1927 he was made provincial grand master of the Royal Order of Scotland in the United States. From 1911 until recently Cochran was an active sovereign grand inspector general of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Free Masonry for the Southern jurisdiction. He also became lieutenant grand commander of the supreme council and had attended every session of the supreme council since 1903, serving on numerous committees.

In 1912 he was appointed repre-

Cochran, in 1918, accompanied Grand Commander Moore to Europe to make an investigation of Masonic conditions and to establish Masonic relief headquarters at Paris for soldiers in the World war. In 1933, he represented the grand lodge of Texas at the dedication of the London Masonic Peace Memorial in London.

In 1901, Cochran was president of Hella Temple and in 1920, was the first president of the Texas Shrine Council which he assisted in organizing.

Children's Hospital.
In 1920 he was a member of the organization committee of the Shriner's Hospitals for Crippled Children. Since 1921, he had served as chairman of the board of trustees of this organization which operates 15 hospitals in the United States and Canada. He was president of the Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Crippled Children.

Cochran was a member of the Sons of the American Revolution, serving two years as a national vice president and four years as president of the Texas society. He was a member of the Texas State Historical Society, the Colonial Society of Pennsylvania, the Dallas Rotary Club and some other clubs.

Among his other corporate connections, he was president of the Mutual Building Association, a director of the First National Bank in Dallas and the Dallas Railway Company. In politics he was a Democrat, although independent.

The meeting was opened by Dr. C. R. Gray, presiding elder of the Corsicana district, who presided and who also conducted the devotional. This was followed by a very interesting talk by Rev. D. L. Fisherman Crawls To Safety After Two Comrades Die

CHARLEVIOX, Mich., Feb. 11.—(P)—Clayton Brown, 25-year old fisherman given up for lost with two companions after they were swept into Lake Michigan Saturday before a 40-mile gale, came back today to tell how he refused to die.

Brown crawled on frozen hands and legs seven miles across rough shore ice after Claude Beardsley, his father-in-law, and Earl Cunningham, coast guard surferman, froze to death in the small boat before it jammed into a floe and stuck.

Brown's life was saved, physicians said, by the ministrations of an Indian family into whose cabin he stumbled early last night.

In a hospital today Brown told his family of the 48-hour struggle to keep his companions from freezing, and how he stumbled shoreward after the boat grounded "because I figured I'd just as soon die on my feet."

TEXAS DEMOCRATS RENEW EFFORTS TO SMOOTH STATE MEET

STATE POLITICAL CONVENTION PLANS BEING WORKED OUT IN WASHINGTON

By DONALD A. YOUNG
WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—(P)—Texas Democrats renewed their efforts here today to chart a smooth course for a Roosevelt-Garner state convention May 26.

While conversations among heads of the state and national organizations centered primarily around consideration of delegates to the state meeting who would lay aside factional differences to support the party's candidates, a host of other matters appeared to be of equal importance.

Among them was determination of the chairmanship of the Texas delegation to the Philadelphia national convention, how far Texas delegates would be able to carry their campaign for "states' rights" as opposed to what some termed "Washington bureaucracy" and whether campaign activities would be directed by the state organization or national leaders, such as Vice President Garner, Texas national committeeman.

Garner and Myron Blacklock of Marshall, chairman of the state Democratic executive committee, discussed these problems today but declined to say whether they had arrived at any decisions.

"I came here primarily to help Garner fashion a winning organization," Blacklock said, "provided it is satisfactory to Governor Allred."

He declined to say whether he would insist that Allred be named chairman of the Texas delegation which will have 46 votes to the Quaker City, or whether he would accept the wishes of Garner, whatever they might be.

Some discussion arose in Democratic circles in Texas last week over whether Senator Connally, or perhaps Rep. Rayburn of Bonham, should be given that honor.

Blacklock said the date of the state convention was fixed by Texas statute but the convention city had not been selected. He added he considered a sentiment for Dallas had arisen recently.

Blacklock would not say publicly whether the "states' rights" issue would be paramount at the state convention, asserting only that it seemed to me it would be a very appropriate matter to be discussed.

Blacklock, Rayburn and Karl Crowley of Fort Worth, postoffice department solicitor, discussed an impending campaign for more than three hours yesterday and later asserted all were agreed in principle on how it should be conducted. They reviewed hundreds of suggestions for a campaign committee composed of party leaders from every congressional district and hoped to announce the membership within a week.

Tax Assessor and Collector.
In another section of this paper will be found the formal announcement of Bruce E. Gillean as a candidate for the office of assessor and collector of taxes for Navarro county, subject to the action of the democratic primaries.

Mr. Gillean is a native of Frost, and has resided in Navarro county all of his life. He resided in Corsicana for a number of years and is well and favorably known in all sections of the county. He is a married man. He is a son of the late W. F. Gillean of Frost, at one time county commissioner.

Mr. Gillean is of a pleasing personality and has numerous friends and supporters who unhesitatingly endorse his candidacy and commend him to the voters of this county as a man of integrity, business acumen, and one capable of discharging the duties incumbent upon this highly-important and responsible position of the county government.

If elected, Mr. Gillean's friends believe that the manifold duties of the office will be discharged in an efficient, honest and capable manner with credit to the county as well as to Mr. Gillean.

Friends of Mr. Gillean respectfully commend his candidacy to the voters of Navarro county and earnestly solicit their vote and influence in the campaign.

DEMOCRATS HESITATE FOLLOW REPUBLICAN LEADERSHIP IN ITS ATTACK UPON SUPREME COURT

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—(P)—Attorney General Cummings said today the justice department has studied the constitutional powers of congress over jurisdiction of federal courts but insisted the survey was "a mere matter of routine."

His press conference statement was made when asked about today the justice department has studied the constitutional powers of congress over jurisdiction of federal courts but insisted the survey was "a mere matter of routine."

Cummings declined comment on Norris' suggestion that congress by legislation could limit the high court's jurisdiction.

"We always study anything that may become of interest," Cummings added.

But there was no indication today that the administration force would rally with him in united array to seek action this session.

Democratic councils are divided on the question. Some, like Senator Pope (D-Ia), are for converting into immediate action the dissatisfaction with supreme court decisions, felt in high administration circles. Pope has introduced a bill to require a vote of at least 7 of the 8 justices before a law can be invalidated.

Others advise against action, at least immediately. One close adviser to the President, although declining to be quoted by name, said recently the administration would seek to accomplish new deal purposes "within the language of the majority opinions" of the court.

Norris, in his senate speech yesterday attacking the court's AAA decision, said pointedly that congress could "remedy the situation if it has the courage to do so."

"Clearly gives congress the right to say what the supreme court shall and shall not pass upon," he holds that a constitutional amendment thus is not necessary to curb the tribunal.

Norris defended the new administrative farm bill, projected as a substitute for the AAA, as a new measure provides for federal subsidies to farmers who control crop production through transfer of acreage from commercial crops to soil-building growths.

The bill was still in the debate stage in the senate today, with leaders hoping for a vote before tomorrow night. Another farm bill, the Smith measure authorizing $50,000,000 for 1936 seed and feed loans, completed its journey through congress late yesterday and went to the White House.

FOUR ENGAGEMENTS BOOKED FOR COUNTY ALL-STAR SEXTET

Two dates for games between the W. A. Holt girls basketball team of Waco, and the Navarro county all-star team, have been booked in addition to two engagements already planned for the Navarro county girls with Harvey Eallev's Irene High school team, it was announced Tuesday morning by C. F. Broughton, Y. M. C. A. physical director.

The W. A. Holt girls are scheduled to play on the Corsicana Y. M. C. A. court Saturday night, Feb. 22, and the county girls will visit the McLennan county capital city on a later date, which has not been set. The first game of the season for the all-stars is against Irene here Thursday night, Feb. 20, at 8:30, and the all-stars will visit Irene on Friday night, Feb. 28.

When Irene visits Corsicana, a couple of curtain raisers have been planned. At 7:30 the Pontiac boys' team will play the Oak Cliff Y team, and another game will be booked at 8:30.

Official of the Y. M. C. A. physical department received a letter Tuesday morning from F. E. Nichols of Austin, labor commissioner, stating that at the present time it will be impossible to have a boxing and wrestling exhibition, and the boxing and wrestling events scheduled for the night of the girls' game have been replaced by the 6:30 gam.

All girls selected on the all-star team will practice at 4:30 Thursday afternoon, Feb. 13, and cards to that effect were mailed their coaches Tuesday morning by Physical Director Broughton.

Birthday Luncheon Given Sunday For Frances Chambliss

NAVARRO, Feb. 13.—A lovely birthday luncheon was given on Sunday, February 8, by Mrs. Day Eubanks of Navarro, honoring her sister, Frances Chambliss on her 18th birthday.

Miss Chambliss was very much surprised when she came home from church Sunday at noon to find a host of friends who greeted her with the old familiar song, "Happy Birthday to You."

She was then led to a table beautifully decorated with the Valentine motif. In the center of the table, was arranged a large, white cake, flanked with red candles in red candle holders.

The honoree was asked to light the first candle on her cake, followed by each guest doing likewise. A wish was made and the candles were then blown out, after which a delightful luncheon was served consisting first of tomato juice cocktail; second, delicious plate lunches, and third, deserts of coffee, toasted pecans, and pieces of the birthday cake.

After lunch, Miss Chambliss was given the pleasure of unwrapping her gifts, which were very greatly admired by her guests.

Those present were Clara Collins, Burnice Gandy, Martha Harward, Hallie and Mattie V. Compton, Lucile Horn, Imogene Knight Marjorie Moore, and Virginia Ferguson.

The afternoon was enjoyed by attending a theatre. Proceeding the theatre party, pictures were taken, after which everyone adjourned, reporting a delightful day and wishing for Miss Chambliss many more happy birthdays.

BRYAN SEXTETTE DRUBBED GIRLS OF HILLSBORO 34-21

MASSEY, TIGER FORWARD, AND PARKS, EAGLE CEN-TER, LED SCORERS

Corsicana High School staged a determined rally in the last half of their game to over-come an eight point lead and tie the score at 27-all with about a minute and half to play, and then free goals by E. L. Keeton, forward, and Parks, center, for the Tigers in their final Central Texas Basketball league game for the season. Hillsboro was leading, 18-8 at the half-way mark, and Corsicana clearly outplayed the visitors during the second half after the Hill countians had things much their own way in the first two periods.

Starting a determined reversal of fortune the Bengals scored nine points in the third stanza to pull within five points of the Eagles, and then tied the count, only to lose it.

Hillsboro High School girls sextette were forced to accept the smaller end of a 34-21 decision at the hands of the Bryan girls as a curtain raiser attraction. Bryan was leading, 11-10, at the half, immediately after the opening of hostilities in the second half, the Bryan girls put on a scoring spree and pulled away from the Hill county sextette. Hillsboro rallied in the fourth period but the Bryan club had too much lead to be overtaken. The Bryan crew was too fast and snappy for the visiting girls.

Boyd Payne, former football coach of the I. O. O. F. Home here, is the mentor for the Hillsboro Eagle club. Chesty has practically all of his performers back for next winter's court performers. Keeton, Parks, and Massey played fine games Tuesday night while the Bengals put up a fierce battle in the last two quarters.

High Scorers.
Parks, center, Hillsboro, and Massey, forward, Corsicana, were tied for the high scoring honors with 11 points each. Massey, however, turned in a number of spectacular shots and was the outstanding goal shooter of the evening.

The melee was a rough affair, with a total of 25 personal fouls assessed by the officials. The two bitter rivals were putting forth every effort within the power to chalk up a win on this occasion and this fact caused a number of fouls to be called.

McElwath, Tiger guard, accounted for six points during the evening, while Rait, Roberts and others looked good.

Mintra, forward for the Bryan girls, paced the scorers in the first game of the evening when she accounted for 16 points. Hammond of Hillsboro led her club with 13 points.

NO. 14. Deductions for Professional Expenses.

A professional man may deduct all necessary expenses incurred in the pursuit of his profession. These include the cost of supplies used in his practice, office rent, cost of light, water, fuel, and telephone in his office, the hire of office assistants, and expenses paid in the operation and repair of an automobile, based upon the proportion of time it is used in making professional calls or for other professional purposes.

Many physicians use their residences both in their offices and their homes. In such instances the physician may deduct as a business expense the rental value of the rooms occupied for office purposes if he actually pays rent, and also the cost of light and heat furnished these rooms. Also, he may deduct a portion of the wages paid domestic servants whose time is partly occupied in caring for these rooms. Membership dues in professional societies are deductible. Physicians and dentists who keep in their waiting rooms, current magazines and newspapers for the benefit of their patients may deduct this item as a business expense. The cost of professional journals for taxpayer's own use is also a deductible item.

The cost of technical books is not a deductible item, being a capital expenditure, but a proportionate amount for each year's depreciation of the books may be deducted. Depreciation may also be taken on office furniture and equipment. Insurance premiums on office of other professional equipment and liability insurance may be deducted. Automobile liability insurance may be deducted only when the automobile is used wholly in pursuit of the taxpayer's profession, may legitimately be claimed as a professional expense.

No. 15.
Exemption Allowed State Employees.

The compensation of officers and employees of a State or any political subdivision thereof, if the services of such officers or employees are rendered in connection with activities which constitute the discharge of an essential governmental function, as distinguished from a proprietary function, is exempt from Federal income tax. The compensation of such officers and employees is

FATHER CORSICANA WOMAN WAS BURIED IN BLOOMING GROVE

Lee Davis, age 55 years, died at his home at Blooming Grove on Thursday, February 6, and funeral services were held on Friday from the Central Baptist church. Burial was in Rose Hill cemetery at Blooming Grove.

Surviving are his wife, two sons Ellis Davis, Blooming Grove; Jimmie Davis, Blooming Grove; three daughters, Mrs. E. H. Perry, Corsicana; Mrs. J. T. Wright, Pecos; and Miss Josephine Davis, Blooming Grove.

Mr. Davis was a native of Navarro county and had lived in the Blooming Grove community 25 years.

subject to Federal income tax if their services were rendered in connection with the exercise of a proprietary function. For example, the compensation of the governor of a state, the mayor of a city, councilman, board of aldermen, public-school teachers, firemen, and policemen is not subject to Federal income tax. Compensation received by employees of a municipality owned waterworks or street railway or electric light plant is subject to Federal income tax, as such activities are proprietary rather than governmental in character.

Fees for social services to a state are taxable, for example, compensation paid architects and builders for planning and erecting a state capitol or other state or municipal building. An officer of an employee of a state, for the purpose of the income-tax law, is one whose services are continuous and not occasional or temporary.

Number 16.
LOSSES ON STOCK TRANSACTIONS

The exchange of stock or securities in a corporation solely for stock or securities in another corporation in pursuance of a plan of reorganization to which both corporations are parties or as a result of the exchange of stock or securities in a corporation solely for stock or securities in another corporation in connection with a recapitalization. Where money or other property is received along with such exchanges, no loss is recognized, although a taxable gain may result. The statute also prohibits the deduction for any loss from the sale or other disposition of stock or securities where the taxpayer, within a period of 30 days before or after the date of sale or other disposition, acquires or enters into a contract or option to acquire substantially identical stock or securities.

Two important changes are made by section 112 of the Revenue Act of 1934. Under section 112 (g) of the Revenue Act of 1932 no taxable gain was recognized as having resulted to the recipient stockholder of a corporation in a distribution of stock or securities in such corporation or in another corporation, a party to a reorganization, without the surrender of the stock in respect of which the distribution was made. These provisions are entirely omitted from the Revenue Act of 1934, thus giving such distributions the status of dividend distributions paid in property.

The other important change is in the definition of the term "reorganization" as contained in section 112 (g) of the Revenue Act of 1934. In section 112 (i) (1) (A) of the Revenue Act of 1932 the term "reorganization" is defined to mean "a merger or consolidation (including the acquisition by one corporation of at least a majority of the voting stock and at least a majority of the total number of shares of all other classes of stock of another corporation, or substantially all the properties of another corporation)." The corresponding provision of section 112 (g) of the Revenue Act of 1934 defines the term "reorganization" as "(A) a statutory merger or consolidation, or (B) the acquisition by one corporation in exchange solely for all or a part of its voting stock, of at least 80 per centum of the voting stock and at least 80 per centum of the total number of shares of all other classes of stock of another corporation; or (C) the acquisition of substantially all the properties of another corporation."

The remaining provisions of section 112 (g) (1) are substantially the same as the provisions of section 112 (i) (1) (B), (C), and (D) of the Revenue Act of 1932.

DO YOU ENJOY DRIVING?

An observant Englishman
gives this novel explanation
for the bad or dangerous
driving of American motorists—that we don't take the
delight in it that other nationalities do. We're just in a frenzy to get somewhere,
regardless of what we're going to do when we get
there, and the interval is regarded as a sort of blank."To the Englishman," he says, "driving an automobile is fun. He makes it a game, an adventure. To him
it is more than an instru-
mentality for getting him
to a place where he will
have fun—the golf course,
the cricket field, the tennis
court, the bathing beach or the hunting lodge. The actual operation of the car, the shifting of gears, the use of the brakes, the continual
necessity for adapting himself to new relationships
with other uses of the streets and highways, all
combine to form the pattern of a definitely pleasing pastime."The difference may arise
because Americans mostly
started driving autos before Englishmen did, and have passed through the stage of
enjoying the operation.
Many of us can recall a time
when the mere process of
driving was a new sport,
which gave us the interest
and pleasure that our British friends still seem to find
in it. Yet there is doubtless a difference of temperament, too.Lucky is the person,
whether driving or playing
or working or loafing, who can find fun in what he is doing. That is safe for him
and safer for society."WHAT OTHERS POS-SESS."Arguing again for colonies, Dr. Paul Goebbels, Hitler's official press agent,
says: "What others possess we also must possess."
When he says it, he is looking hard at Britain and France, the two biggest colonial powers, which took
over most of the colonies Germany owned before the war.He says this in spite of the fact that Germany never made any perceptible profit
out of her colonies, or showed any particular talent for colonial administration, or succeeded in getting her
people to emigrate to her
colonies and develop them.
Germans lacking opportunity at home kept right on going to the United States
and Canada and South America. There is nothing in German history to indicate that Germany would
be any better off economically
if she got her colonies back.Nevertheless it might be a good stroke of business for Britain and France to return those colonies, or a considerable part of them.
The territory hasn't done
them much good, either.
And the time has come
when mere retention of it,
in practical ownership but
under the pretense of a League
mandate, may bring
great loss upon both of these colonizing powers. For if Germany doesn't get what
its government and people
want, or what they think
they want, there may be a great European war costing
them far more than the colonies they have appropriated can possibly be worth to anybody.Two fixed habits at Washington: Congress passing soldiers' bonus bill and
presidents vetoing them.From that Louisiana election you might think Huey Long was still running for the presidency.

JUST FOLKS

(Copyright, 1935, Edgar A. Guest.)

LINCOLN.

He never groped for flowery
speech.He never shouted down his foes.
As one would pluck a garden
rose,He took the word within his reach
And in a voice to pity pitched
The literature of life enriched.He never used his august power
But for the good which he could do.The griefs of men he kept in view.Even in his triumphant hour,
And all God ever heard him ask
Was strength and wisdom for the task.The patient Lincoln, sad of face, Whose cheeks were wetted oft
by tears,Lived through the nations troubled years
And gave unto its highest place
A glory, simple yet sublime
That shall outlive the dust of time.

RESPONSIBLE FREEDOM

After sixteen years of
drastic newspaper censorship the Spanish government
has suddenly freed the press
from all control and cancelled pending prosecutions. Foreign newspaper correspondents, who have had ample opportunity to watch drastic press censorship in operation, have maintained that it does not prevent the truth from getting out, but it does inspire
spreading of lies.Lifting the Spanish censorship did not result in an outburst of recklessness on the part of editors. One paper remarked, "Now that we are free, we shall try to deserve our freedom." It promised its readers never
to debase its columns with slander. It announced its motto to be "Liberty with Responsibility."Another prominent paper
discussed the truth that censorship cannot prevent
the evolution of thought.
All it can do is to drive expression into secret and irregular channels, more
harmful in the end to the cause supposedly protected
by the censor.These are things to ponder
and to make Americans
cherish their own freedom
of the press. Liberty with responsibility is what we have now, in most cases, and
it is what we must keep.

VOLATILE FRANCE.

If Italy, Germany, Russia and the other dictatorship countries are governed
too much, France is governed too little. She has a terrible time finding a government that can govern, even
in the mild democratic fashion customary at Paris, for more than a few weeks.
There have been 100
changes of administration
since the present republic
was born, about 65 years
ago.The government is stable
enough as far as the top of
it is concerned. The presidency, which in the French
imitation of the British parliamentary system represents the British king, as official head of the state and
source of authority, is stable enough. The presidents are elected and serve their
terms as regularly and securely as our American presidents. But the actual administration of the country is in the hands of a "responsible" ministry and a parliament precisely like
the British model except
that it is far more variable
and volatile. Thus, taking the word "government" in the French sense of the duration of a premier in office, France in recent years
has had, on the average, a new government every six months.The recent situation in Paris has been normal.
There is talk of "revolution," to be sure, but there
always is in a land where
free speech is a living thing.
France leaps from crag to
crag, turns from leader to
leader in her strange welter
of parties, as one crisis follows another. But she remains a going concern, or derly enough in the French fashion, and proof of the essential toughness of democracy.

BUILDING-GLASS

One of the most striking
of the new building materials is glass brick. There are solid glass bricks,
transparent or translucent,
such as were shown at the Chicago fair, but these are different. They are hollow,
with a partial vacuum inside so that there will be
no visible moisture there,
and a fluted inner or outer
surface that lets light shine
through without transparency or glare. We have beautiful structures built
of such bricks. The possibilities of industrial glass in this and other forms are startling. Says John W.
Love, a business commentator:"These glass blocks as building material depart
more radically from the past than anything save
possibly the frameless steel house. Here one could get a glimpse of new ways of
living, in controlled atmosphere, protected from heat
and cold by glass insulation, surrounded by fireproof draperies, and even carpets of woven glass of iridescent color, a whole
new interior world. Glass
may now be commercially
spun and woven, and no
cigarette would damage a glass rug."Such innovations are timely. The building industry, as Mr. Love remarks,
"needs glimpses of new
worlds these days," and
"the combinations of materials on the market are making everything in existence
obsolete." It is interesting to speculate on what our cities will look like in 20
or 30 years.Clever people certainly do think up ideas in a depression, and so we find
that prosperity is being restored largely by interesting the male sex in what the
up-to-date gentleman wears.The result of this year's election depends on whether sore voters can develop enough enthusiasm for anybody or anything to muster
a majority.is now — we hope the
ciphers are counted right
— 1,404,000,000,000,000,
000,000,000 miles away.
That is, it was that far
away when it was discovered. By now there would be a few more ciphers.This makes Sir Malcolm Campbell's speed on the Utah salt flats look picayunish. It also shows that we are careless in our phraseology when we say national
finances run into "astronomical figures." And when it comes to venturing into
the stratosphere, the spiral
nebulae have us licked.SETTING OF CIVIL

Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock
with interment in Oakwood cen-

by Rev. W. E. Hal, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.
Mrs. File had resided in Navarro county for the past 55
years. Her home was three miles north of Corsicana.Surviving are two nephews, Dan Meador and J. L. Crawford, both of Lufkin.CONTRACT LET FOR RE-ROOFING OF P.
AND S. HOSPITALW. E. Hickey was awarded the contract for the re-roofing of the
P. and S. hospital, county institution, on his low bid of $8245, by the Navarro county commissioners court Monday afternoon. Ten bids
for the re-roofing of the hospital
were submitted and opened Monday morning. The new roof is to be of composition shingles, new metal strips, and the elimination of dormer windows on the roof.
The new roof will materially reduce the insurance rate on this
building.The expenditures for WPA road
projects in the various precincts
were discussed Monday afternoon
by the commissioners and a special meeting will be held Saturday
when a detailed cost report will be available. Ways and means for the increased expenditures under
the budget are slated for consideration.The commissioners said the grading and bridge repair costs to
the county were exceeding the original estimates and additional funds other than allowed under
the budget adopted last summer
are needed to carry out the projects. While the road improvements are completed, the maintenance costs will be materially lessened, both grading and bridge
repairs and replacements, but the budget set up will not care for the work.

University of Texas Interscholastic League Navarro
county class B boys' basketball tournament will be played Saturday, Feb. 15
and the following Wednesday night, Feb. 19, in the Mildred gymnasium. It was announced today by M. N. Boyd, director general of the league's local interests. The tournament opened last Friday but all except one of the Saturday games were postponed
on account of the excessively cold
weather.In the only game played Saturday Purdon went into the quarter-finals with a 35-15 win over Richland, and the Currie-Powell
game was forfeited to Currie. Currie agreed to play the game, so it will be the opener, at 9 o'clock Saturday.Following is the remainder of the schedule, in addition to the Currie-Powell game:Barry vs. McCord, 10 a. m.; Navarro vs. Bryan, 11 a. m.; Em-house vs. Emmett, 12 noon. An hour between 1 and 2 o'clock will be taken off Saturday.

Quarter-Final Round.

The first quarter-final game
will be played at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, with Purdon playing the winner of the Currie-Powell event at 3 o'clock Mildred and Pickett will battle in the second quarter-final and Rural Shade and
the winner of the Barry-McCord game will play at 4 o'clock. The last quarter-final game will be played between winners of the Navarro-Bryan and the Emhouse-Emmett games, at 5 o'clock.The first and only semi-final class A game will be played at 6 o'clock Saturday evening, and another hour will be taken off for recess, from 7 until 8 o'clock.The first semi-final game is scheduled for 8 o'clock Saturday night, and the second semi-final at 9 o'clock Saturday night.The final class A game will be played at 10 o'clock Wednesday night, and will be followed by the final class B game at 7 o'clock.
The consolation game to determine the class B third place winners of the class A and class B final games will match their skill to determine the team to represent Navarro in the district meet, in the near future.Twenty-seven class B teams lined up at the post last Friday and
after 14 games, the first round
had been completed.Purdon, the defending champions
for the past two years looked
top-hole as repeaters, in their efforts against Bastine in the first game, and against Richland in the first game Saturday morning.
Emmett's offensive drive was short
of what a number of fans had expected, when they appeared to be due to pull a 15-0 decision out of the fire against Frost in the first game. Ones versed in the court-game expressed the opinion
that Emmett was off-form Friday
and would put up a better showing when they met Emhouse in their next game. Emmett and Purdon were conceded by coaches as being the first ranking teams.County Girls Cage

he wants only friends in the Cleveland convention. Knox, Chicago publisher who has been making almost daily anti-new deal speeches, declined yesterday to say in what states besides his own he would seek presidential convention delegates.

General Republican Assault. Lincoln Day the most part was given over to republican speeches in honor of the 127th birthday of the civil war president, in which there was a general assault on the administration and frequent references to the constitution.

Such words as "Trojanism," "despotism," and "dictatorships," were used in reference to the new deal. In Vanhook, however, Secretary Wallace defended the administration. He, too, referred to the constitution declaring that "most of us" thought the agriculture adjustment act valid, and "some of us" thought it invalid.

Hoover Rants Again. The former president accused the administration of having "the worst unbalanced budget in history," asserting that "a balanced budget and a stable currency would put more men to work than the whole WPA."

"A fountain of fear" was his description of the new deal. "The stock boom today is not from confidence in the future," he declared, "it is partly from fear of inflation."

The outstanding state of the union at this hour, he declared, "is a state of confusion—confusion in thought, confusion in government, confusion in economic life and confusion in ideals."

During the business session the club voted to put on the "white elephant" sale as planned by the finance committee.

Mrs. Nick Pavlish, wardrobe demonstrator, invited the ladies to meet next Tuesday at her home to cut foundation patterns.

The meeting with Mrs. Barnes at Corsicana Thursday was announced and arrangements were made for several members to attend.

The hostess served a delicious refreshment plate of hot chocolate with marshmallows, and spiced wafers.

The club will meet Feb. 25, with Mrs. C. D. Owen. Miss McNabb will give a demonstration on planning the daily food budget, and serving of food brought from home.—Reporter.

THREE DEAD AFTER ACCIDENTAL BLAST IN SANITARY WORKS

CHICAGO, Feb. 13.—(P)—Jack Smith, 27, died in a hospital today, the third victim of an accidental explosion of dynamite in a sanitary district tunnel 50 feet under the street level on the southwest side last night. Six other men were still under treatment for injuries.

Allen Green, 23, and Albert Desalls, 27, both negroes, died last night of injuries suffered when the blast rocked a section of the bore near West 38th street and South California avenue.

Norman Anewlands, engineer for the sanitary district, said the explosion was caused by a pressure hammer drill which struck a charge of dynamite placed in the rock earlier in the day.

He said that 90 pounds of the explosive was distributed in a dozen holes and exploded by remote control, but that this particular charge apparently had failed to go off.

From the first feeble groping for knowledge by the ape-man down to the vital facts behind TODAY'S news from Italy and Ethiopia.

The Encyclopedia You Have Always Wanted—at a Price You Can Pay!

No matter who you are, or what your business, your profession or your private interests may be, this latest, greatest reference-work places within your easy reach precisely the information you want at the moment you want it. Every one of its more than 40,000 subjects is not only covered by a leading authority, but is the last word based upon the most recent findings in history, biography, art, science and invention, literature, drama, sports, exploration, business and industry, agriculture, home economics, Government, foreign relations, labor—the list is so long, it can only be hinted at here.

Originally planned as a source of quick, up-to-the-minute information for newspaper men, special attention is given in this Encyclopedia to important events and personalities in the news today. At the same time, not a single important detail in the whole dramatic pageant of human progress through the centuries is left out. For that reason, of all the Encyclopedias ever published, we know of none so perfectly designed to meet the average, day-to-day needs of every one.

Are you interested in the latest ideas on home-management, labor-saving devices, furnishings, decorations, dieting, family hygiene? If you are an employer, or an employee, do you thoroughly understand how the recent New Deal legislation affects you? Have you a spare-time hobby you want to develop? Have you special interests, special problems, on which you would like to broaden your knowledge? Wouldn't it be fine to have an up-to-date library of world-wide information at hand when you have to "read up" on various subjects for your work in school?

How We Can Make This Low-Price Offer—and Why

We can offer this wonderful low-price privilege to our readers, only because we are one of a group of newspapers which has contracted with a National Syndicate to manufacture 1,000,000 of these volumes. Such vast-scale production means tremendous savings in manufacturing costs. Just as the automobile manufacturer, by producing cars in huge volume, effects great economies which he passes on to the public in low prices—so the Publishing Syndicate, by producing this Encyclopedia in vast quantities, effects tremendous savings which we can pass along to you.

The Sun is therefore more than glad, as a matter of public service, to serve as the medium through which the World-Wide Illustrated Encyclopedia can be offered to the people of this city at such a phenomenally low price. And we have something of a selfish interest, too. For we like to feel that in placing this great educational advantage within reach of thousands of homes, we will not only build good will among our regular readers but also introduce the Sun to many new readers as well.

Here's How You Can Get the Encyclopedia—Read Carefully

The only way you can get this Encyclopedia—no matter how much you may be willing to pay for it—is through the Sun. Remember, this is a special privilege offered ONLY to Sun readers. We have, however, arranged to extend the offer to all others who promise to read this newspaper for a certain time. And here's how simple and easy it is for you to get your set:

HOOVER

to congress. Mr. Hoover quoted President Roosevelt as saying, "the only thing we have to fear is fear."

"The new deal has been a veritable fountain of fear," he declared.

"The day after the new deal was given life at the election of 1932 began the great fear which created the bank panic of March 4. The stock boom today is not from confidence in the future; it is partly from fear of inflation."

"The unemployment of millions of men in the capital goods industries is due to fear of new deal currency policies. It was the supreme court decisions crashing through new deal tyrannies which brought a gleam of confidence from the fears that had retarded recovery."

"Like other publicity speakers, Mr. Hoover shot at administration spending and said 'the explosive forces of inflation are already being generated. x x x'

"A balanced budget and a stable currency would put more men to work than the whole WPA," he declared.

MINNEHAHA

led by "musing Minneha" and her children.

"She was an Onandaga," it was explained, "and her children were Onandagas, and it was no concern of the Mohawks what happened to them."

When Hawatwa returned to his cave, he discovered the deed he became "temporarily insane" and wandered in the wilderness. He came under the influence of the Indian preacher Degawanda, and their partnership resulted in "the strange politico-religious system, based on the doctrine of a confederation of tribes."

Dr. Hewitt is working with details furnished nearly 40 years ago by a blind Iroquois ritual leader, whose version is said to "indicate 'considerable historical validity.'"

Legends attaching to Hawatwa name have been used in literature notably by Longfellow.

into the league of the Iroquois. expeditions were considered as a means of freeing them. Roads began drifting shut in Wisconsin.

Des Moines and Cedar Rapids, Ia., set coal administrations to ration depleted coal supplies after Governor Clyde L. Herring authorized mayors of Iowa communities to seize coal if necessary to prevent hoarding and supply emergencies.

A freezing mist covered streets and highways with ice at Kansas City, Mo., and Northern Oklahoma was hit by a sleet storm.

Continents of the northern hemisphere were wracked by the elements today as bitter cold, drifting snow, fire and winds of gale or tornado proportions brought death, destruction and privation.

Minnesota counted 24 burned to death in fires at Lakewood, N. J., Jackson, Minn., New York and Montreal. In Southern California tornadoes twisted through four cities, injuring six persons, while floods and fires added to property damage estimated at $100,000.

Iowa highway already blocked by snow and with more forecast, were unavailable for coal deliveries and the fuel shortage was so serious. Gov. Clyde L. Herring, advised mayors of Iowa cities to confiscate coal if necessary to conserve supplies.

Nine workers and a government engineer, marooned aboard a workboat locked by ice floes in the Ohio river 35 miles north of Paducah, Ky., faced possible death from ice gorge upriver which stored up a tremendous head of water.

Snow hanging up to three feet in depth threatened death by starvation to Montana cattle herds. Snow or rain fell or were forecast in most states west of the Mississippi river, in the middle west and along the Atlantic coast.

Europe was lashed by blizzards and gales. Scores of fishermen were killed and others lost along the Italian coast of the Adriatic. Nine persons were known dead and many were missing in Asia Minor. Floods swept Smyrna plains villages.

In the wake of a 24-hour blizzard, at least 25 were dead in Bulgaria, many others in Hungary and Greece. Macedonia had 25 known dead.

As far south as Alexandria, Egypt, where a flying boat station was destroyed, high seas worked havoc.

In Great Britain the toll of the past days stood at 27. Roads faced a fuel shortage as roads became glazed with ice and only 20 per cent of normal supplies reached markets.

Icy Storms Kill Many Throughout Europe

LONDON, Feb. 13.—(P)—General icy storms sweeping Europe and Asia Minor have killed at least 138 persons in the last 24 hours.

With communications disrupted at many points and, consequently, an even greater report of deaths feared, the following list was compiled:

Bulgaria, 78 dead.

Macedonia, 25 dead.

Thrace and Anatolia, 12 frozen to death.

Gulf of Salonika, 10 drowned.

Adriatic Sea, 13 drowned.

The snowstorm which hit Thrace and Anatolia was the most severe in 25 years.

Three hundred fifty small ships were wrecked at sea and 20 minutes of the famous Minaret of Santa Sophia, weaver blown off at Istanbul.

Snowdrifts were reported 9 feet deep at some points in Thrace.

Many persons were reported to be missing.

STREET PROJECTS

project covering lowering of water mains and sewer lines in various parts of the city following a conference on Wednesday, and the mayor reported that as soon as San Antonio approval was secured, as much of this work as possible would be started.

Delays of all kinds have dogged the street repair project although it was ranked No. 2 by the Corsicana Planning Board when a list of projects was submitted to the WPA officials.

Their request when the program was inaugurated last year. The original project was rejected because of too high a cost per man per year, although it had been figured on basis submitted by WPA authorities, and revisions were held up for several weeks because other types of work were favored.

Recently however, plans were requested on the projects and some sections of the original unified program have been revised, and others will be forwarded to the Palestine office as soon as completed by the engineering staff.

Few on City Projects.

According to records available, only about one-third to one-half of the eligible workmen in Corsicana for WPA projects are being actually used on city projects, and the remainder are now employed on road and levee projects in the eastern and northern sections of the country.

Because of numerous delays in getting city projects under way during past months, requisitions were put through to augment levee projects so that as many men as possible could be given employment and prevent as much suffering and want as possible.

It could not be determined Thursday from local officials if any of the extra quota of men assigned to other projects could be made available for projects submitted in the city program.

Projects on the levee program are being delayed, this time by lack of labor. A number of new road projects are scheduled to be started in the county in the immediate future and these may further complicate the local situation.

City officials were engaged Thursday in attempting to work out some plan where the workmen might be staggered in such a manner as to carry on some of the other projects that have been approved and are ready for action.

FIRE

Name society were transformed into a terror stricken mob.

The dancers, Fire Marshal Thomas P. Brophy said survivors told him, refused to heed warnings given by first firemen to reach the scene, and rushed screaming toward the only two exits.

Four of the victims died at the scene while they were being given first aid. The fifth died at Bellevue Hospital.

The five who lost their lives, Brophy's investigation disclosed, were trapped by the surge of the frightened crowd and were killed by inhaling smoke and flames.

They were:

Martin S. Stettner, 28.

John J. Gardella, 22.

Harry M. Chu, 35, manager of the restaurant.

Miss Ariene Benjamin, 26.

Miss M. P. Murphy, 35.

All of the victims were residents of New York City.

Death Toll in Hotel Fire Reaches Fifteen

LAKEWOOD, N. J., Feb. 13.—(P)—The death toll of the Victoria hotel fire, which started officially at 15 today as city and county authorities began an inquiry into the holiday multiple tragedy.

As search into the ruins was resumed for the bodies of the eight missing, local police questioned survivors of the Lindbergh birthday blaze which roused 37 sleeping guests.

Another body was found about noon today, bringing the total of recovered bodies to eight. Seven are still missing, presumably buried under the mass of ice-coated ruins.

The identity of the eighth body was not immediately determined.

Many dove from windows of the three-story, 65-room structure, to the street, receiving fractures which in three cases proved fatal.

Others perished in flames. Eight were injured, eight seriously as they strove to escape the inferno.

Police Chief Walter Curtis said a check of other hotels and homes convinced him the eight missing died in the fire.

Three of the dead all from New York City, were identified as Mrs. Ruth Sherman, 28, Mildred Fisher, 22, a bookkeeper, and Harry Ehrlich, 28, a furrier.

Four children's bodies were found in the ruins last night. One was identified by the father as Runya Feldman, 6, of Rockaway Beach, N. Y.

Two others were tentatively identified as Charles Abramowitz, 5, of Brooklyn, and Robert Eller, 5, whose father's business address was given as 118 Madison Ave., New York.

Priest Called Hero In Restaurant Fire

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—(P)—A priest who shouted directions to panicky men and women and rescued the injured until he collapsed was called the hero of the fire which swept through Lum's Chinese restaurant last night.

Survivors of the fire, in which thirty persons were killed and thirty-nine injured, told how Father George Rosso tried to check the panic by throwing himself in front of the rush for the exits.

The priest, assistant pastor of the Church of Our Lady of Solace, was knocked to the floor and trampled in the stampede.

Regaining his feet he helped others carry several injured persons down to the street.

He died of the screaming drowned in his words when he pleaded with the men to be calm and help women to safety.

The priest finally collapsed on the sidewalk, overcome by emotion and burns. He was in a hospital today, his condition described as improving.

Check Girl Trampled.

Mrs. Annette Dobson, 28, who operated the lunch-chock booth in the restaurant, said she was trampled by frantic men when she tried to flee down the stairway.

"They looked crazy," she said, "they were shouting 'get out of my way and let me out of here. I took one step and then I was pushed down. I couldn't get up."

"The men walked right over me. My head was cut so bad I couldn't see. I had five stitches. It all happened in a short while. I guess, but now it feels like those men were walking over me for hours."

Other survivors said they saw men and women stripped to the waist, their clothing torn from them in the wild rush for safety. One man lost his shoes in the scramble.

NEUTRALITY

avoided the danger that the United States might be drawn into another war to enforce peace."

Senate leaders, intent on adjourning congress by May 1, predicted the compromise measure would go through virtually as agreed upon by the senate foreign relations committee yesterday.

The plan, as now revised, requires the president to embargo shipments of war implements to belligerents. To this provision, which also is a feature of the present temporary neutrality law passed Feb. 25, is added a new clause for mandatory embargoes on loans and credits for belligerents, except "ordinary commercial credits." The entire act would be inapplicable to wars in which an American republic is attacked by a non-American nation.

Majority Leader Robinson (D-Ark) said it would be brought up for debate early next week and probably passed in one day.

In view of the situation in Manchoukuo and North China, the war minister told the Associated Press, "some reinforcements of Japanese forces seems necessary" in the regions involved in international tension.

Sheriff Pevehouse said he believed Clitus would voluntarily return to Missouri without the necessity of extradition proceedings. The Federal Bureau of Investigation, U. S. Department of Justice, records reveal Clitus as sent to the Missouri penitentiary Aug. 9, 1931, and a 30-year sentence on robbery charge and that he escaped, Nov. 27, 1935.

THEFT OF HOGS AND CHICKENS CLEARED UP BY ARREST NEGROES

Depredations on numerous farmers' hen houses and in one instance three hogs stolen were cleared up Tuesday with the arrest of five negroes by Deputy Sheriffs Jack Floyd and W. G. Ivey. Statements clearing up a number of chicken house raids were procured from the negroes which were turned over to the sheriff Wednesday.

The officers reported Wednesday that the negroes would "spot" the place to be raided, then sulphur would be burned in the hen house to put the fowls to sleep and then the fowls would be taken away without disturbing cackles with its attendant dangers of detection from the owners. The fowls were disposed of a few at a time at local merchants' establishments.

Numerous complaints will be filed immediately.

Included in the cases cleared by the officers are:

Theft of three hogs from S. Z. Burke's farm near Roane, about Jan. 1, this year.

Theft of 35 chickens from O. L. Bancroft near Powell a short time later.

Theft of nine and then 20 chickens from E. Butler, getting a total of 29, from T. H. Berry, 31 miles east of Corsicana, Jan. 31 and Feb. 1.

Ten and 80 chickens taken on two occasions from Homer Frazier near Roane, and then the theft of 10 fowls from T. H. Berry north of Roane. Several chickens were also taken from Bobby Johnson north of Roane.

It was reported here another car crashed into the rear of the car occupied by the two Trinidad women, and the latter were traveling east on Highway 31. The name of the driver of the second car figuring in the crash was not available here early Wednesday morning. The cars were considerably damaged.
